Letter From the Senior Class President

Dear Class of 2015,

Our time at BHS has been difficult yet extremely rewarding. We've shared all-nighters, plenty of laughter, and even the occasional tears. However, we have learned from our mistakes and have grown into the seniors that we are today, serving as role models, leaders, and trailblazers. I know that you have all learned how to work hard no matter the challenge, a mentality that will ensure your success in whatever you apply yourself to after graduation. You are an incredibly inspiring and impressive group of young people with passions that range from molecular biology and community service to music and athletics. Through your dedication both in and out of the classroom, you have made a mark on our school and our community.

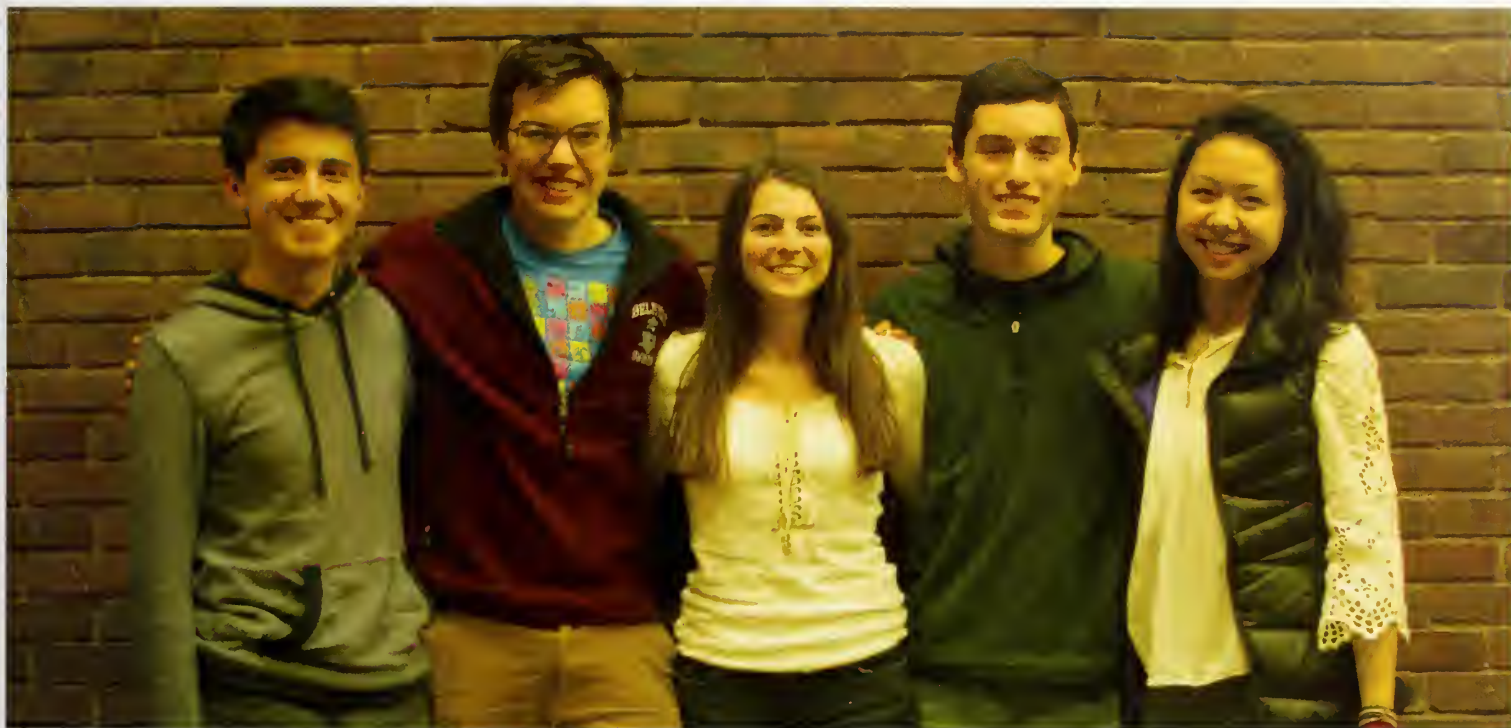

I hope that you cherish your experiences at BHS and always remember your roots here, wherever life takes you. Your classmates will always be there for you. My fellow class officers and I are honored to have had the privilege of representing our incredible class over the last few years, and we can't wait to see what you do next.

Good luck in all future endeavors,

Sophie Kurz-Cosgrove
Class President

The Why Cheap Art Manifesto

People have been thinking too long that art is a privilege of the museums & the rich. Art is not business!

It does not belong to banks & fancy investors.

Art is food. You can't eat it but it feeds you. Art has to be cheap & available to everybody. It needs to be everywhere because it is the inside of the world.

Art soothes pain!

Art wakes up sleepers!

Art fights against war & stupidity!

Art sings hallelujah!

Art is for kitchens!

Art is like good bread!

Art is like green trees!

Art is like white clouds in blue sky!

Art is cheap!

Julius Max Frank

"Go into the arts.
I'm not kidding.
The arts are not a way to make a living.
They are a very human way of making life more bearable.
Practicing an art, no matter how well or badly, is a way to make your soul grow, for heaven's sake.
Sing in the shower.
Dance to the radio.
Tell stories.
Write a poem to a friend,
even a lousy poem.
Do it as well as you possibly can.
You will get an enormous reward.
You will have created something."

Kurt Vonnegut

Winter Drake

You have all of the potential you need to find success, make a difference, achieve your goals, and find real happiness in life. Never stop dreaming big, remembering that those dreams are a journey that should keep extending. In order to continue moving forward you must take new steps every day.

We are so proud of you and love you limitlessly!

"What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us."
-Ralph Waldo Emerson (attr.)

"True terror is to wake up one morning and discover that your high school class is running the country."
-Kurt Vonnegut
